With advertence to the Proceedings of Government and order thereon ⁽⁶⁶⁾ no ^{4155 64} 402 dated 29th April 1898 I have the honor to submit for orders the endorsement no ^{4155 64} 402 dated 2nd June 1898 (in original) made by the Principal Medical College Madras, on this office letter no 3416 dated 14th May 1898 regarding the recovery of Medical books from the old students in view to their being given to the new ones

2 As regards the cost of books I am to say that though debited to the Medical Budget at the beginning to facilitate matters, it can easily be adjusted afterwards by credit to the Medical Department and debit to the District Funds

In the original copy the Senior Surgeon proposed to debit the cost of books to the Medical Budget in view to ^{be saved} ^{by the trouble of making} ~~by~~ communications without ^{in the first instance} ~~know~~ he says that the cost will be debited to the Medical Budget to facilitate matters and ~~also~~ subsequently adjusted by a debit to the D & and credit to Medical Budget

On 20/8
The Principal of the Medical College who was consulted by the Senior Surgeon considers the proposal to transfer books from passed pupils to new entries objectionable

Information on the two points mentioned above was requested in

The books issued by the College to Government and Local Fund pupils are recovered from them only in cases of dismissal or resignation. Other wise they are allowed to retain the books supplied to them even after passing out.

The transfer of books from passed pupils to new entrants seems in my opinion objectionable as the books suffer greatly by constant use and sometimes later editions superceding makes the former books first supplied unserviceable to the pupil.
